

Council Update

August 16, 2016

The Transition Team met on August 10. Much of the discussion revolved around assessing the values of River Terrace Church through the listening sessions that are being held. A final listening session will be held in the Quad on August 28 for those who have not been able to participate in earlier sessions. The transition team intends to summarize what we have learned early in September, present it to Council, and then to the congregation between services on October 16. The team also is working to compare RTC values that were identified through lengthy processes in 2001 and 2010. We will be looking for similarities and differences among values from 2016 and previously identified values, as these are likely to be relevant to our search for another pastor.

River Terrace Praying continues to attract a small group in the Council Room at 9:15 on Sundays. Please join if you can. In any case, please be faithful in praying for River Terrace Church.

Council meets again on August 25. We expect another update to follow shortly thereafter.
